

Coinstar®, LLC has been the trusted leader in coin counting for more than 25 years. Our nearly 20,000 kiosks recycle 43 billion coins every year, providing consumers with the smartest way to unlock the hidden financial value of their loose change.

Provide Hassle-Free Coin Counting for Increased Traffic and Efficiency

- Many financial institutions are adopting self-service coin-counting kiosks for an easy end-to-end coin-service solution.
- Relying on Coinstar, a brand consumers know and trust, ensures your staff doesn't waste time dealing with coins or kiosk issues.
- Coinstar kiosks offer highly accurate coin counting and exceptional uptime.

Plus, there's NO capital investment, NO employee labor, and NO maintenance agreements.

Save Time, Increase Productivity, and Build Relationships

With Coinstar kiosks, financial institutions benefit from:

- Hassle-free turnkey coin pickup and processing.
- Protection from loss by eliminating short coin rolls.
- The highest degree of voucher security in the industry.
- Unlimited free technical support.
- Machine-specific accounting reports, available weekly and monthly.

Offer Your Customers a Convenient, Full-Service Financial Solution

Kiosk visitors get to choose from four coin services:*

Cash for Coins

Customers can conveniently exchange their Coinstar voucher for cash or deposit the amount into their on-site bank account.

NO FEE eGift Cards

Consumers can trade-in their coins for one of 20+ popular eGift Cards from retailers like Amazon.com and Starbucks.

Charity Donations

Individuals can donate their coins to select well-known charitable organizations.

Direct Deposit

Customers can use their debit cards to deposit the amount directly into their accounts.

They also get:

- Freedom from having to wrap and roll their coins.
- All of their financial needs met in one place.
- The convenience of being able to deposit their Coinstar cash while they're still at the bank or credit union—maximizing their ability to save.

*Services offered to customers can be customized by the financial institution. All services may not be available across all financial institutions offering the Coinstar service.
